

STEP ONE: Acquire Your Invitation

All applicants must submit an invitation from Russia. You will need to have your invitation before your Russian Visa Application can be prepared.

- Business and Flight Crew Applicants must submit a letter of invitation from the company to be visited in Russia. This must be on company letterhead and written in Russian; see page 5 for a list of details that must be included in this letter. A fillable form letter has been also provided that you may email to your business contact in Russia.
- Tourist Applicants must submit an official tourist invitation from a registered Russian company. This invitation does not need to specify the 3 year request; single-entry invitations are acceptable. If you do not have your own official tourist invitation, G3 can acquire this invitation (an additional $80 fee will apply.)
- Homestay Applicants must submit a notarized letter of invitation from the host in Russia. This letter must specify the relationship between traveler and host and provide the host's email address, phone number and the full address of the host's residence at which the traveler will stay. (Faxed/scanned copies accepted.)

STEP TWO: G3 Prepares Your Russian Visa Application

Due to the complexity of the online Russian Visa Application, all applicants are required to use G3's Concierge Service to have a G3 associate complete the online application. Email the following documents to Russia@g3visas.com:

- Completed Russian Visa Questionnaire (attached). You may save your answers on this file and email directly to G3. All questions must be answered in full in order for G3 to complete your application accurately.
- A scan of the information/photo page of your valid signed passport.
- Your completed Visa Order Form (attached).
- A scan of your official invitation letter from Russia.
- If you have previously visited Russia, send a scan of all your previous Russian visas issued within the last three years.

G3 will email you a PDF of your completed application to print and sign, as well as a pre-paid FedEx airbill to send your documents to G3. Please allow 3 business days for your application to be completed after G3 has received all information. Rush service is available.

STEP THREE: Send the Following Documents to G3

- Two copies of your completed Russian visa application, sent to you by G3. Both must be signed with an original pen-to-paper signature in blue or black ink. Make sure the signature matches the signature in your passport.
- Your original valid signed passport. It must have at least two blank pages marked "Visas" side by side and more than six months before expiry. (G3 can assist with expedited passport renewals and additional passport pages.)
- Two identical passport-style (2"x2") photographs taken within the last 6 months (must be in color, on photo paper, and have a plain white background).
- A hard copy of your invitation letter from Russia. Faxed or scanned copies may be submitted.
- Copy of flight itinerary, showing your name and entry and exit dates.

Additional Requirements for Tourist and Homestay Applicants:

- A personal letter requesting the issuance of a 3 year multiple entry visa; G3 will prepare this letter and send it with your application for you to print and sign.
- A copy of a recent bank statement showing a balance of $3,000 or more. Account numbers may be blacked out for privacy.
- A copy of the front and back of your US health insurance card. The card must show your name.

Additional Requirements for Select Applicants:

- Minor visa applicants must also provide a photocopy of their birth certificate, an original letter signed by both parents giving permission for the child to travel to Russia, and photocopies of both parents' identification (passport or driver's license).
- Former citizens of CIS nations (former USSR) must submit a copy of the previous CIS passport or other proof they do not hold Russian citizenship.
